

Meeting Minutes: October 3, 2020, Green Lake County Dems & Friends

The meeting was called to order by Linda Wilkens at her home for the in-person attendees and others through Zoom. Previous meeting notes were approved and can be found on the www.greenlakecountymunicipalparty.org website. The treasurer's report was $1150.04.

Joe Fenrik, a candidate for State Superintendent of Schools, spoke at this month's meeting. There are six individuals running for this non-partisan seat and will be winnowed down at the February primary and then finalized during the April spring election. Joe is the only teacher running for this seat and has a website, Fenrikforeducation.com. He also has a facebook page. He will need help obtaining signatures from December 1 through the end of December. He gave an introduction of his background and discussed his current career and future goals. Many questions were asked by both in-person and online audience.

Phone banking continues during the Weekend(s) of action and during the week for those that would like to participate in this important GOTV campaign.

Postcards are ready to be sent out for Nate Zimdars and will be ready soon for Joni Anderson and Jessica King. The second letter is also ready to go. These are other tools available to volunteers to help with these local campaigns.

A member from our organization has volunteered to initiate a twitter promotion campaign and texting will be coming from the DPW. Letters' to the Editor are also being encouraged.

Our next meeting will be held November 7, 2020, site to be determined, due to the COVID pandemic.

There were 8 online and 14 in-person participants at today's meeting.
